Let Everybody Understand

that reports of the number of answers received from last Sunday's "Wants" must be made

TO-DAY.

A Solid Gold Watch will reward some careful advertiser.

NEXT SUNDAY'S "WANTS"

Will be worthy a still closer watching, for they

WILL CONTAIN

4 Watches

FOR CAREFUL ADVERTISERS.

In addition to week-day awards.

FIRST. "WANTS" UNDER "HELP WANTED" bring hundreds of replies. Three lines telling of help wanted recently brought six hundred and sixty answers. No wonder some advertisers are actually afraid to say "Help Wanted" in The World. No wonder other advertisers say there is no use reporting a comparatively small number of replies.

NEXT SUNDAY'S "HELP WANTED" advertisers are invited to report how many answers they received, but that they found the help they wanted and have given the man, woman, boy or girl advertised for a nice position.

WATCH No. 1 will be awarded for the best position actually given for man, woman, boy or girl through Sunday's World.

There is also objection raised to awarding watches for the greatest number of answers reported by those seeking positions under the heading "Situations Wanted." In one case the advertiser refused to accept a position at just the pay named in the want, thus giving room for the suspicion that the "Want" was put in to get named answers to win a watch. Therefore—

WATCH No. 2 will be awarded for the best position actually obtained by man, woman, boy or girl through Sunday's World.

NOTE THIS CAREFULLY.

The character, probable permanency and suitability of the positions given and secured by advertisers will decide which are the best positions, and there is no appeal from The World's decision.

ONCE MORE! NOTE THIS!

EVERY TRUTHFUL REPORT MADE OF POSITIONS SECURED OR GIVEN BY SUNDAY'S WORLD "WANTS" WILL BE SUBSTITUTED FOR RECOGNIZED AND REWARDED.

WATCH No. 3 will be awarded for the largest number of replies received through Sunday's World under the two headings

Rooms Wanted and Board Wanted.

The above award is made to remove these classifications from competition with "Wants" which in the nature of things are not expected to bring as many replies as these two headings always do in the Sunday World.

FOUR OUT OF THE RACE!

HELP WANTED Being put out of competition, all other "Wants," even those bringing only two or three replies, are on something like an equal footing, and

WATCH No. 4 will be awarded to the careful advertiser truthfully reporting most answers

UNDER ANY CLASSIFICATION

(EXCEPT THE FOUR NAMED)

In Sunday's World Wants.

Yes, a report of two or three replies which will send a resignation will quite likely be rewarded by one of these four beautiful eight or Waltham Watches, in 14-carat gold-filled cases, warranted by The World equal in wear and appearance to any watch ever made, and absolutely guaranteed for fifteen years. The World is

Watching the "Wants."

FOUR SUNDAY'S REWARDED "WANTS."

Four of last week's advertisers were careful enough to win rewards.

Mrs. L. H. DENT,

of 47 East 10th St.,

has selected her solid gold Waltham watch,

and her monogram is now being engraved on it;

also, at her own request,

inside the case is told the story of its presentation to her by THE WORLD.

Mrs. Dent has been for eight years general agent, for Fords, Howell & Hubert in their subscription book department. She appoints her own sub-agents, and is smart enough to earn $2,500 a year, which is BIG PAY FOR A WOMAN.

It was this businesslike shrewdness which prompted her to report her answers and to produce them for verification. A more worthy recipient of one of The World's handsome watches could not have been presented her.

Miss Jane Martin.

227 Grand street, Jersey City, has chosen her 25 volumes of books, and was not long about it. She is sufficiently well read to know her favorite authors, and she fully appreciated the opportunity of having them in uniform library binding of cloth and gold. Miss Martin is a scholarly woman of sufficiently mature years to prize The World's handsome gift.

Charles W. Fuess.

1037 Fifth avenue,

was unselfish enough to choose his watch, and showed his good taste in the selection of one of the plainest of the styles of cases shown him. Neither the two ladies nor Mr. Fuess received as many answers as many others, but, like them, was careful enough to send his report.

S. Lennig & Sons.

329-331 East 34th street,

own twenty-five volumes of books as a result of a week-day "Want" under the heading of "Business Opportunities." They say: "It is not alone The World's offer of a reward that inspired us to try it, but the number of replies had to the above advertisement, but it places us on a par with the others who have obtained the good results obtained by advertising in The World. Very respectfully yours,

S. LENNIG & SONS.

NOTE.—Space will be found in an early issue of The World to publish hundreds of reports like the above. Mean while advertisers desiring accurate knowledge of how many answers are to be expected under any specified classification will be shown actual reports of results by applying to the Advertising Manager.

S. De Vos.

268 State st., Brooklyn, reported 75 answers to a World "Want" inserted on the very same day and thus misses the reward by only one reply.

Mrs. N. F. A.

writes a letter too long to quote in its entirety. "I have never advertised in my life," she begins. "I don't know how." N. F. A. says she has a pleasant flat in an apartment house and wants to rent part of it, but the terms of her lease prevent her advertising it. She doesn't know how to proceed. She continues: "Now to me, dear World, you seem a sort of guardian angel watching over the interests of such as I, who think myself one of The World's children."

Dear N. F. A.:

A World "Want" can be framed to fit your want, and indeed every want imaginable. It is not necessary to give the address of your flat in the "Want." Word it attractively, and without naming your exact location have the answers come to one of the boxes in The World's office. No one need ever know the name or address of World advertisers until they themselves choose to disclose it.The World is

Watching the "Wants."

BLAZE IN PALMER'S THEATRE. TUMBLING INTO TAMMANY.

Mystery About the Fire Which Is Being Investigated.

Scores of Recruits at Last Night's Primaries.

New Board of Aldermen Planning Their Organization.

It was a great feast the Tammany Tiger had last night. There was the greatest assortment of political vivandoes ever spread before him, and he got away with everything in sight. And the feast does not yet seem over. With Republican, County Democrats, Anti-Slappers, Yorbites and what not of political odds and ends that made up the menu.

Political epicureans may say that such a heterogeneous mixture as Charles A. Jackson, late chairman of the County Democracy; Gen. Emmons Clark and Major William Bullard, former "Diamond Back" Republican, and Sam Kugel, of the old "Abe," is likely to cause indigestion; but this is not indicated by the post-prandial smile on the face of the Tiger to-day.

There is not an Assembly District of the city in which the city is divided in which the Tammany Tiger did not make important gains at the primaries last night. Some of the most prominent additions to the list of Tammany Tiger are: First District—P. J. Lyons, late Republican candidate for assemblyman; W. J. A. Cadney, late Republican candidate for Police Commissioner; and John J. Sullivan, late Republican candidate for Police Commissioner. In the second district, Thomas J. Gilroy, late Republican candidate for Police Commissioner, was elected. In the third district, the late John J. Sullivan, late Republican candidate for Police Commissioner, was elected. In the fourth district, the late John J. Sullivan, late Republican candidate for Police Commissioner, was elected. In the fifth district, the late John J.
